

OSHA 10 Hour Construction Safety Elements

Hosted by the Canton Service Office

Who should attend: Individuals involved in the Construction Industry. This includes public and private employers.

What you will learn:

- ☐ Effective safety and health evaluation of construction sites;
- ☐ Hazard recognition skills and possible solutions to construction safety issues;
- ☐ How to use and implement the rules & recommendations of OSHA's CFR part 1926

After this course, you will be able to:

- ☐ Recognize risk factors related to construction worksites;
- ☐ Suggest control measures to mitigate risk factors;
- ☐ Interpret rules for OSHA's CFR part 1926 as it applies to your workplace

Location: BWC Canton Service Office
339 E Maple St.
N. Canton, Ohio 44720
(330) 471-0937

Instructors:

BWC Safety Consultants and Industrial Hygienists

Dates: Tuesday, February 4 and
Wednesday, February 5, 2020 (must attend both days)
8:30 AM – 4:30 PM

Cost: Free to Ohio Employers

Credits: EPA (9.0), Sanitarian (12) CEU's (1.2). You will also be issued an OSHA 10 hour construction card